

October 13, 2020

Guest: Anna- friend of Christian. Currently in US Army, serving as a paralegal. When she gets out of active duty, hopes to attend college, majoring in Vocal Performance and minoring in Art.

Old Business:

1. Prison Art Show status/ update
 - a. Spoke with Christi at CVB re: anticipate cancelation of Feb show due to Co-vid.
 - b. Spoke with LCF – will not be participating 2021. No rec classes have been held at all.
 - c. Still waiting on USP, but finally got contact name, Mr. Thaddis Rawls, Supervisor of Rec.
 - d. TC will contact by phone at USP since no other communication route provided.
 - e. TC will clarify show status with CVB and advertising rep following discussion with Mr. Rawls.
 - f. Forfeiting advertising grant money for 2021 will mean reapplying for 2022.

2. Christmas party: Dec or Jan?
 - a. Dec 8th (the 2nd Tuesday) is already booked at HC for Kiwanis x-mas party
 - b. Libby offered her church basement for x-mas party.
 - c. Group prefers Dec x-mas party over Jan.
 - d. Will finalize plans at Nov mtg. Anticipate typical pot- luck and gift exchange.

New Business:

1. Margaret McNamee donated leather scrap to LCAA. TC took small piece. Matt took rest. Matt donated $5 to treasury in appreciation. Will use leather to make hinges for jewelry boxes.

2. Cindy Collins mother died. Sympathy card signed. TC delivered. Motion made to provide $50 donation to Hospice. Libby (treasurer) sent donation.

3. Bart Wu asked if we still needed his $100 donation this year despite not having the art gala. TC told him No, that we were fine financially.

4. Bank balance $7, 587.27

5. If you are interested in painting on store front windows for Halloween or x-mas, talk to Main St.

Thank you to all who brought refreshments in Alan's absence. Thank you for bringing in new artwork to hang. Remember to work on a special Nov-Dec piece to display at HC. If I don't tell you enough, let me tell you now, I really really appreciate the hanging help and the cleaning up help after the meeting! If you have a good idea for a group art project, lets hear it!